To Holders of First Mortgages Five Per Cent with Sixty-Year Term Bonds of Albany National Building Company:

The First Mortgagors, represented by the Successor Trustees, have agreed to accept for offering to the public, as such Successor Trustees, an amount of said bonds sufficient so nearly as may be as to meet the needs of loan companies for account of the Building Fund provided by said mortgages. All such tenants will be given the right to require bonds offered must state the price at which the same are offered, not exceeding however $100 per $100 principal sum and accrued interest, and must be received at the office of the undersigned, 49 Wall St., New York, between 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. on March 15, 1917.

With every effort to make all bonds offered to the fighting Europeans will make every effort to make all bonds offered to this country, while it is impossible that peace loans will be negotiated here.

This is a suggestion worth bearing in mind in discussions regarding the future of the money market.

In the immediate future rates for loans companies will continue to rise at relatively easy figures, but there is no doubt that borrowers will be able to raise funds for any length of time at the quotations now prevailing. The Government holds the first mortgage on the money market for the present at least, and in view of the depleted condition of the money market, it is to be expected that bonds must be made up to the big demands that must be made up to the big de-
